JUDGE POPE TO SPEAK
AT LAW REVIEW BANQUET

Speaker and guest of honor at the Montana Law Review banquet will be Judge Walter S. Pope, Senior Judge of the 9th District U.S. Court of Appeals in San Francisco.

The dinner, commemorating 25 years of publication of the Review, will be at 7:30, April 4, at the Club Chateau, according to Shelton Cross Williams, editor-in-chief.

The Justin Miller Award, a $100 Savings Bond, will be presented for the student contributions to the Law Review. The Award is named for Judge Justin Miller, '13, retired Justice for the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. Two awards are planned for this year.

Other guests at the dinner will be Justice John C. Harrison, Associate Justice of the Montana Supreme Court, Robert E. Sullivan, dean of the UM Law School and Larry M. Elison, law school professor and Law Review Advisor.

The Review is a bi-annual legal journal containing articles of interest by scholars and experts in related legal fields. It also contains student notes and comments. Circulation is about 1200.

All members of the Montana Bar Association and many lawyers practicing outside Montana receive the journal. Copies also go to all law schools, many judges, administrative agencies, state law libraries, bar association libraries and corporation legal staffs.

The Review is presently staffed by 7 seniors and 6 juniors.

The Review is intended to provide practitioners, judges and legislators with a critical analysis of new developments in the law and commentaries regarding proposed changes in the law. Members of the Board of Editors are Richard L. Beatty, business manager, Great Falls; Bruce Ennis, Kalispell; Gary Davis, Billings; Keith Keller, Helena; Alden Peterson, Billings; and Larry Sverdrup, Buffalo, N. Y.
